NEW GEN VOICES

Two Weeks In

September 2026

A youth-voice look at the first two weeks of Safe Passage, highlighting trust, emerging leadership, workplace growth, and young people's ideas for their school communities.

FIRST TWO WEEKS OF SAFE PASSAGE

14	12	8
Young people in the initiative	Youth voices captured	Schools

Based on the September 3, 2026 program check-in.

The early picture

The September 3 check-in captured youth perspectives during the first two weeks of Safe Passage.

THEMES FROM THE CHECK-IN

Belonging and trust

Belonging and trust were themes in the early check-in.

Emerging leadership

Youth voices highlighted emerging leadership.

Workplace growth

Workplace growth was part of the early reflections captured.

PROPOSED ENRICHMENT

Ideas for school communities

Chess, photography, nail instruction, and cultural learning were proposed as enrichment ideas.

These were proposals, not established or completed programming.

How to read this snapshot

The counts describe participation and the voices captured. They do not measure program impact.

SOURCE NOTE

Selected highlights adapted from New Gen Voices: Two Weeks In, September 2026, based on the September 3 program check-in. This public edition is a summary, not the full original report.